The speaker, presumably named Kevin, repeats the phrase "I'm going to do a little bit of the same thing" several times, possibly indicating that they are about to show the audience something similar to what they have shown before. Kevin mentions that he has been working all day and is taking advantage of his boss's bathroom break to show the audience some fun things

Summary: around the office within the 17-minute timeframe. The text also includes a brief, awkward interaction with someone passing by.

Kevin's beauty spot. I'm going to do a little bit of the same thing. I'm going to do a little bit of the same thing. I'm going to do a little bit of the same thing. I'm going to do a little bit of the same thing. Hey, what's up guys? I've been working all day, but I'm just walking by. That's awkward. Anyway, yes, I've been working all day, but my boss just went to take a bathroom break. So that means I have exactly 17 minutes to show you guys some of the fun things around the office before he gets back. Let's go. I'm going to do a little bit of the same thing.
